WIFE GONE, 3 CHILDREN ARE SENT TO SOCIETY

Michael McKarin's Troubles Stir Court's Sympathy.

Michael McKarin of 58 East 118th street appeared before Magistrate Moses R. Ryttenberg in Harlem Court yesterday and asked that his three children, Michael, 8; John, 7, and Mary, 4, be sent to the Children's Society. He said his wife, whom he accused of drinking heavily, disappeared Friday and that he had a police alarm sent out for her.

heavily, disappeared Friday and that he had a police alarm sent out for her. He heard that Mrs. McKarin had been neglecting the children and that he found t impossible to care for them because of his small income and long hours of work in a laundry.

Magistrate Ryttenberg committed the children, but before they left court officers bought rolls and coffee for them. A collection was taken up by court attendants in which the Magistrate also was a contributor. This money was turned over to McKarin.
